Department of Information & Library Science

orientation handbook
Welcome!

This orientation booklet is designed as an introduction to help you navigate the beginning of your time at Indiana University. While we try to provide the most accurate information available, some things will change before classes begin. Please double-check important details with the resources provided.

Please feel free to contact us if you have any questions or concerns. We look forward to having you as students in the Department of Information & Library Science (ILS) and in the School of Informatics, Computing, and Engineering (SICE).

Class Registration Information

How do I register for classes?

Students register for classes using the student center located in One.IU. The process is free for initial registration and for any schedule adjustment within two working days after your initial registration.

Additional Information about registration can be found on the registrar’s page. https://studentcentral.indiana.edu/register/steps-register/index.html

Note There is an $8.50 drop/add access fee for any schedule changes made after the first two working days following registration.

Access to One.IU can be found here: http://www.One.IU.edu
Before You Register...

...Check the ILS Schedule of Classes to identify the course number and the class number for each course in which you intend to register.

You should also check for any course notes, as some courses have prerequisites or require authorization. It is also a good idea to check the ILS Schedule of Classes before classes start in case there have been changes in the class schedule.

You can find the class schedule here at:
http://www.ils.indiana.edu/courses/

You will need your IU network ID username and passphrase to log into the One.IU system:
https://one.iu.educollection/uu/access-management

*Additional Steps * on how to register are available through the UITS Knowledge Base:
https://kb.iu.edu/d/anig

University ID Number

You can also locate your University ID Number in the One.IU system. Use the ‘Personal Information’ channel in the Self-Service tab.

The ILS Office will include your University ID Number in one of the ILS Orientation mailings. You can also call or email the ILS Office with any questions or to get your ID number.

Phone: 812.855.2018
or toll-free 888.335.7547
email: ilsmain@indiana.edu

When can I register for classes?

Incoming students at ILS are encouraged to register early. You should contact your ILS faculty advisor prior to registration for advice on course selection. Most students should be able to register about 6 weeks from your date of admission.

New international students will register after completing international orientation.

Dual degree students should confer with their non-ILS department for registration clarification. The One.IU system will include a registration appointment time. You will be able to register at that time or later.

Student ID: CrimsonCard

Indiana University’s CrimsonCard is your...

• Official Indiana University Photo ID
• Universal Bus Pass
• Indiana University Library Card
• Recreational Sports Pass, and more!

You can deposit money to your card and use it at campus food services, vending machines, and copy machines. Get your card at one of the Campus Card Service Centers when you arrive on campus. You should be eligible to get a card after you register for classes.

Academic Policies

No course in which a student receives a grade lower than C (2.0) will be counted toward requirements for any ILS degree. Repeating a course in which the student received an unacceptable grade or taking another in its place does not remove the credit points for that course from a student’s cumulative grade point average. All grades achieved in ILS courses will be counted in the ILS and IU GPA. Because a minimum GPA of 3.0 (B) is required for graduation, any grade below B must be balanced by another sufficiently above B to keep the GPA at the 3.0 level.

Academic Honesty

Code of Student Rights, Responsibilities, & Conduct

http://studentcode.iu.edu/

Preamble: ...Individual rights are best protected by a collective commitment to mutual respect.
Policy of Academic and Personal Misconduct (see Parts III and IV): Faculty are required to report all incidents of academic misconduct to the Dean of Students and may report incidents of personal misconduct, such as classroom incivility.

Plagiarism (see Part III): A student must not adopt or reproduce ideas, words, or statements of another person without appropriate acknowledgment. A student must give credit to the originality of others and acknowledge indebtedness whenever he or she does any of the following:
a. Quotes another person’s actual words, either oral or written;
b. Paraphrases another person’s words, either oral or written;
c. Uses another person’s idea, opinion, or theory; or
d. Borrows facts, statistics, or other illustrative material, unless the information is common knowledge.
Academic Policies

Citing Sources

ILS students need to use correct citation methods in their research. Use a style manual when preparing documents. Ask your instructor if you have questions.

Other resources are listed here:

IU Libraries - Help with Citing: https://libraries.indiana.edu/help-citing-sources

Writing Tutorial Services: http://wts.indiana.edu/

Computing Ethics

“Computer Users’ Privileges and Responsibilities – Ethical Usage” reminds that “computing resources and network capacity should be used in accordance with the high ethical standards of the University community as described in the Code of Student Ethics.”

If you want more information or if you have any questions about student responsibilities and campus codes of conduct, please contact:

Student Ethics and Anti-Harassment Programs: https://studentaffairs.indiana.edu/office-student-ethics/index.shtml
Advocates Office: https://studentaffairs.indiana.edu/student-advocates/

Libraries at IU

The Indiana University Libraries are regularly ranked in the top 15 in the country. There are a number of branch libraries (art, law, rare books, business, etc.) on campus. https://libraries.indiana.edu/

The IU Information Commons is located on the first floor of the Wells Library. It is open 24/7 and provides group and individual computer work-stations, special printers and plotters, and multi-media equipment. Library reference staff members and UITS technology consultants are available to help.

Library Workshops

IU librarians offer a variety of workshops on core research tools and other topics. Registration is needed for these one-hour sessions. https://iub.libcal.com/
Tuition and Mandatory Fees

In addition to tuition, students pay other fees that help provide resources. For more information, visit: https://studentcentral.indiana.edu/pay-for-college/cost-of-iu/index.html

<tr>
<td>Activity Fee</td>
<td>All athletic events (except football and men’s basketball) are free during the regular season with a valid IU student ID. Reduced student rates are available for the Jacobs School of Music School performances including concerts, ballet, and opera; Department of Theatre and Drama productions; and most Auditorium events. The fee also provides unlimited access to Recreational Sports facilities, including the Wildemuth Intramural Center (WIC) and the Student Recreational Sports Center (SRSC).</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Student Health Fee</td>
<td>The student health fee provides many free and discounted services at the Indiana University Health Center. Benefits include a reduced charge of $18 for routine medical clinic visits, two free visits (excluding psychiatry) to Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS) each semester, free prescheduled appointments to the women’s clinic, and several free or discounted services available through the Health and Wellness clinic, such as fitness assessments. More information can be found at: http://healthcenter.iub.edu/about/fees-payments.shtml.</td>

Technology at IU

Because information technology plays a pivotal role in research, instruction and course work at Indiana University, ILS is dedicated to providing students, faculty and staff with reliable access to advanced computer systems.

In addition to providing access to Indiana University’s central computing systems, ILS maintains its own UNIX, Windows and Macintosh servers and workstations.

IU Student Technology Accounts

Registration, access to ILS technology, and e-mail require an IU network ID and password. Once these are created. If you wish to set up your accounts on campus, you can go to the Wells Library, Information Commons for assistance. However, it will be more efficient to establish your accounts before you arrive on campus. International students may have to wait until arrival on campus to set up their accounts.

Creating your IU Computing Accounts

After you have been admitted to Indiana University (about four weeks after admission), you can use the online Account Management Service (AMS) to create:

- IU Network ID (your electronic identity at IU, consisting of a username and a password)
- ADS Domain account
- IU printer account
- IU e-mail account

The entire process takes approximately 10–15 minutes.

To use the Account Management System (AMS), you will need your IU student ID number. (Contact the ILS Office if you do not have this number yet.)

To access the AMS go to: itaccounts.iu.edu
Select STUDENT
Click on CREATE MY FIRST IU COMPUTING ACCOUNTS AND PASSWORDS
You may also set up your IU Printer Account from this page by following the link to “Create more IU com- puting accounts” from the homepage.

CAS & Duo Authentication

CAS - Central Authentication System is required to log onto all university systems. Duo is a 2nd step of authentication required for all student employees. All students will begin with the Duo system and must choose to opt out. Duo uses either a smartphone, tablet, or token to send a push or generate a passcode after students enter their username and passphrase. For more information, visit: https://kb.iu.edu/d/bfgm

Box Cloud Storage and File Sharing

IU and UITS have partnered with the cloud storage service Box to provide unlimited file storage for IU students, faculty, and staff. Box also allows file sharing and collaborative editing capabilities. For more information about Box, please see the following link: Box at IU: https://uits.iu.edu/box
Technology at IU

University Information Technology Services

Indiana University has a strong technology infrastructure (and has been ranked as one of the “most wired” and “most wireless” campuses). The UITS Support Center has a help line (812.855.6789) available 24 hours a day/7 days a week, and can also be reached via email at ithelp@indiana.edu. They also offer an online knowledge base, and a help desk located upstairs in the Wells Library Information Commons.

UITS Home Page http://uits.iu.edu

Purchasing Technology

The IU Bookstore’s Computer Store is located in the Indiana Memorial Union. It carries software available at student rates. IU Ware can be downloaded for free online. IU also has numerous partnerships with hardware and software vendors that offer discounted rates for student purchases. https://iuware.iu.edu/

Luddy Hall

General Info

Luddy Hall is open from 7am to 10pm Mondays through Fridays and 7am to 7pm Saturdays & Sundays. Accessing the building outside those hours is possible with the use of your Crimson Card. You will also need your Crimson Card to access the ILS suite outside of office hours (8am-6pm M-F), the kitchen on the 2nd floor, and the printers/copiers. If you are locked out of the building or the suite, you will need to e-mail sicehelp@indiana.edu to be given remote access.

There is a common fridge available for use in the 2nd floor kitchen, along with a microwave. Coffee and tea are also available. Please let any staff member know if you need assistance with using the kitchen. Do be respectful of shared spaces and clean up after yourselves. Luddy also has a Campus Cafe on the 1st floor and a vending machine on the first floor.

Printing

Printers are located in room 0999 (Hallway in Basement), 1103, 1119, 1999b, 1029, 2033, 2133, 2999a, 3033, 3051, 3139, 3999a, 3999c, 4025, 4033, 4040, 4053. To print to any of these machines, you will need to select the printer on your computer (see ) and then swipe your card at the machine you want to print it at. Most IU students are given a printing allotment, which is tied to your CrimsonCard. When you swipe your card to release a print job, it is automatically deducted from your allotment. Check your allotment at the CrimsonCard website.

Computers for student use

There are computers for student use in Luddy Hall, available on a first-come, first-serve basis. The computer lab is located in 0121. The computers in 0119 and 0006 can be used if no class is taking place. A few computers in the ILS suite may be used, pending availability, with a time limit of 2 hours.
SICE Computer Support

The SICE Information Technology Staff provides computing support to the school’s students, faculty and staff. If you are unable to log on to a computer or are experiencing problems, please e-mail sicehelp@indiana.edu.

ILS maintains a UNIX server that provides an excellent programming environment, particularly for Java, Python, PHP, XML, Perl, and other advanced technologies used to create cutting-edge website. Students are automatically assigned Ella/Iris accounts, and they should email sicehelp@indiana.edu for more information about how to access these services.

Listservs

Listservs are the primary way of communicating ILS-related information. New students are required to subscribe to ILS-L@indiana.edu. They are encouraged to subscribe to the other ILS listservs. Details (including how to post messages and how to unsubscribe) can be found on the SICE website Technology Section: https://www.sice.indiana.edu/about/facilities-technology/index.html. Additional Information about registering for Listservs is available here: https://kb.iu.edu/d/bcek.

ILS-L (Required for ILS students)

ILS-L was established to facilitate department-related communication among faculty, staff, and students. Announcements include information regarding class schedules, course registration, advising, notices about programs and professional meetings, notices of publications and professional activities, part-time job opportunities for ILS students, etc.

ILS-STUDENTS-L

This listserv was created to help welcome new students and to provide additional communication for current students. This listserv provides a way to exchange information about apartments, mechanics, doctors, dentists, used books, etc. It is a great place to post your questions about life in Bloomington and at Indiana University.

SICE Listservs

The School of Informatics, Computing & Engineering has a number of wonderful resources available to students, and listservs for a variety of purposes. Students will be automatically subscribed to several SICE listservs. University policy concerning electronic mailing lists requires that they be used for research or education activities and that the list owner monitor the list’s content to ensure that it is serving its intended purpose.
Social Media

Connect with ILS. We are present on several social media sites in order to keep students up to date on the goings on within the department. Below are links to our pages:

Graduate and Professional Student Government (GPSG)
Website: http://www.indiana.edu/~gpso
GPSG is the student government organization for graduate and professional students at IU Bloomington. They offer a wide array of services including social and networking events, information on health insurance, and a housing advertisement board.

International Student Organizations
Indiana University has numerous international student groups and organizations. All students are invited to participate.

ILS Student Advisory Council
The ILS Student Advisory Council (SAC) provides direct communication between students and the administrators of the Information & Library Science Department. The department solicits advice from students in order to participate in the formulation, modification, and implementation of policies affecting academic and student affairs (per the American Library Association Accreditation Standards). Representatives are chosen from each of the ILS student groups, including at least one from the MIS program, two from the MLS program, and one from the Ph.D. program.

Student Groups

ILS Student Groups

ILS students have formed local student chapters of professional organizations. These groups provide opportunities to network, learn about professional issues in the field and build up your résumé.

American Library Association (ALA) - Student Chapter
This is the Indiana student chapter of the national association. Designed to support Library Science students in their academic and professional goals, ALA hosts a wide variety of events to engage students in all stages of the program.

Special Libraries Association (SLA)

The Special Libraries Association Student Group (SLA-SG) is dedicated to helping MLS students develop their professional goals beyond the traditional course lectures. We are connected to the national association and Indiana Chapter Special Libraries Association (InSLA). Each semester, we host tours to learn about special library practices at different organizations and provide opportunities for students to prepare for a career in the library profession.

Student Resources

Career Services

Think about career paths and the job searching process throughout your degree program. Student jobs, internships, workshops, and classes can all enhance your résumé.

SICE Career Services can be found at: https://www.sice.indiana.edu/career/

Connect and set up your own career path with guidance from SICE’s Associate Director of Career Services, LP Ailes. Schedule an appointment with LP in the “Schedule an Appointment” section of SICE Careers. The entire SICE Career Services staff is available to discuss job opportunities, résumés, interviews, and more at the SICE Career Services office building located at 919 E. 10th St.

The SICE website has a page dedicated to career resources for ILS students. Discover previous ILS student jobs, internships, and volunteering - https://www.sice.indiana.edu/career/students/index.html

SICE Careers is the online job posting system administered by SICE Career Services. All of the opportunities posted in this system are from employers looking to specifically recruit Indiana University SICE students. In SICE Careers you can search for open positions, apply for jobs online, research employers and perform geographic and job-category specific searches, request interviews with employers interviewing on-campus, search and RSVP for employer-related events, schedule appointments with career advisors, and more. Students can log in using their CAS credentials.

It is a good idea to start thinking about your résumé early. Student jobs (or volunteer positions) can help develop your credentials. Links from the ILS website can help you explore options. Part-time Jobs are also sent through the ILS Listservs (so be sure to subscribe).
